“Cultural Competence: Providing Better Service to AZ Tribes”

Presented by: Dr. Don Warne, AIHMP President/CEO

“...it benefits the State of Arizona to partner with tribal governments on issues affecting all of Arizona as well as to ensure that state services and resources are available to all eligible state citizens residing in Arizona tribal communities to the same extent that such services are available to all other eligible state citizens; and a spirit of cooperation should guide the continuing government-to-government relationships between the State of Arizona and the Tribes that call Arizona home; and meaningful and timely consultation with Arizona’s Tribal leaders will facilitate better understanding and informed decision making...”

Governor Napolitano
Executive Order 2006-14

Who: Dr. Warne is one of the most popular speakers on Native American Health issues. A member of the Oglala Lakota (Sioux) American Indian tribe from Pine Ridge, South Dakota, he is a descendant of a long line of traditional Lakota healers and medicine men. Dr. Warne received his Bachelors degree from Arizona State University, and a Medical Degree (MD) from Stanford University. He later obtained his Master of Public Health degree with a concentration in Minority Health Policy from Harvard University. Dr. Warne's work experience includes several years as a Primary Care and Integrative Medicine Physician in Indian Health Programs, and currently on faculty at Arizona State University Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law.
